5. Records and information—including but not limited to documents, communications, emails, online postings, photographs, videos, calendars, itineraries, receipts, and financial statements—relating to:

- a. Any records and/or evidence revealing GRAYSON's presence at the January 6, 2021, riot, or previous events related to the Presidential Election in November 2020;
- b. Any physical records, such as receipts for travel, rental agreements for vehicles or lodging, which may serve to prove evidence of travel of to or from Washington D.C. from November of 2020 through January of 2021;
- c. GRAYSON's (and others's) motive and intent for traveling to the U.S. Capitol on or about January 6, 2021, or from November 2020 through January 6, 2021; and
- d. GRAYSON's (and others's) activities in and around Washington, D.C., specifically the U.S. Capitol, on or about January 6, 2021.

6. Any weapons potentially used in the commission of violent activity relating to the U.S. Capitol riot on January 6, 2021, or evidencing the possible unlawful possession of a firearm in violation of 18 U.S.C. § 922(g)(2), including but not limited to, firearms, knives, clubs, and flagpoles;

7. Records and information related to criminal charges pending against GRAYSON in the State of West Virginia, including court papers, hearings, citations; records and information related to the sale, possession, acquisition of firearms and the acquisition, renewal, possession of a License to Carry Firearms issued from the State of Pennsylvania; and, any other evidence related to a violation of 18 U.S.C. § 922(g)(2).

8. Digital devices used in the commission of, or to facilitate, the above described offenses, including to communication with associates also involved in the criminal activity, to access the internet and various social media sites, to take photographs, to record videos, and/or live-stream footage during the events described.

9. For any digital device that is capable of containing and reasonably could contain fruits, evidence, information, contraband, or instrumentalities as described in the search warrant affidavit and above, hereinafter the “Device(s)”:

- a. evidence of who used, owned, or controlled the Device(s) at the time the things described in this warrant were created, edited, or deleted, such as logs, registry entries, configuration files, saved usernames and passwords, documents, browsing history, user profiles, email, email contacts, chat, instant messaging logs, photographs, videos, and correspondence;
- b. evidence of software, or the lack thereof, that would allow others to control the Device(s), such as viruses, Trojan horses, and other forms of malicious software, as well as evidence of the presence or absence of security software designed to detect malicious software;
- c. evidence of the attachment to the Device(s) of other storage devices or similar containers for electronic evidence;

- d. evidence of counter-forensic programs (and associated data) that are designed to eliminate data from the Device(s);
- e. evidence of the times the Device(s) was used;
- f. evidence of the locations the Device(s) were used;
- g. passwords, encryption keys, and other access devices that may be necessary to access the Device(s);
- h. documentation and manuals that may be necessary to access the Device(s) or to conduct a forensic examination of the Device(s);
- i. records of or information about Internet Protocol addresses used by the Device(s); and
- j. records of or information about the Device(s)'s Internet activity, including firewall logs, caches, browser history and cookies, "bookmarked" or "favorite" web pages, search terms that the user entered into any Internet search engine, and records of user-typed web addresses.

During the execution of the search of the TARGET PREMISES described in Attachment A, law enforcement personnel are also specifically authorized to obtain from GRAYSON (but not any other individuals present at the TARGET PREMISES at the time of execution of the warrant) the compelled display of any physical biometric characteristics (such as fingerprint/thumbprint, facial characteristics, or iris display) necessary to unlock any Device(s) requiring such biometric access subject to seizure pursuant to this warrant for which law enforcement has reasonable suspicion that the aforementioned person(s)' physical biometric characteristics will unlock the Device(s), to include pressing fingers or thumbs against and/or putting a face before the sensor, or any other security feature requiring biometric recognition of:

- (a) any of the Device(s) found at the TARGET PREMISES,
- (b) where the Device(s) are limited to those which are capable of containing and reasonably could contain fruits, evidence, information, contraband, or instrumentalities of the offense(s) as described in the search warrant affidavit and warrant attachments, for the purpose of attempting to unlock the Device(s)'s security features in order to search the contents as authorized by this warrant.

While attempting to unlock the device by use of the compelled display of biometric characteristics pursuant to this warrant, law enforcement is not authorized to demand that the aforementioned person(s) state or otherwise provide the password or identify the specific biometric characteristics (including the unique finger(s) or other physical features), that may be used to unlock or access the Device(s). Nor does the warrant authorize law enforcement to use the fact that the warrant allows law enforcement to obtain the display of any biometric characteristics to compel the aforementioned person(s) to state or otherwise provide that information. However, the voluntary disclosure of such information by the aforementioned person(s) is permitted. To avoid confusion on that point, if agents in executing the warrant ask any of the aforementioned person(s) for the password to any Device(s), or to identify which biometric characteristic (including the unique finger(s) or other physical features) unlocks any Device(s), the agents will not state or otherwise imply that the warrant requires the person to provide such information, and will make clear that providing any such information is voluntary and that the person is free to refuse the request

As used above, the terms “records” and “information” includes all forms of creation or storage, including any form of computer or electronic storage (such as hard disks or other media that can store data); any handmade form (such as writing); any mechanical form (such as printing or typing); and any photographic form (such as microfilm, microfiche, prints, slides, negatives, videotapes, motion pictures, or photocopies).

The term “digital devices” includes any electronic system or device capable of storing or processing data in digital form, including central processing units; desktop computers, laptop computers, notebooks, and tablet computers; personal digital assistants; wireless communication devices, such as telephone paging devices, beepers, mobile telephones, and smart phones; digital cameras; peripheral input/output devices, such as keyboards, printers, scanners, plotters, monitors, and drives intended for removable media; related communications devices, such as modems, routers, cables, and connections; storage media, such as hard disk drives, floppy disks, USB flash drives, memory cards, optical disks, and magnetic tapes used to store digital data (excluding analog tapes such as VHS); security devices; and any other type of electronic, magnetic, optical, electrochemical, or other high speed data processing devices performing logical, arithmetic, or storage function.
